CLAIMED BY THEM FOR WRONG-FUL DISMISSAL.

Court Holds Their Tenure of Office Expired On the Date of the 1897 November Election and Their Right to Hold Office Ceased On the Following January.

The retition of Thomas J. Everill and seven other ex-police officers, who were discharged some time ago, for a writ of mandate to compel City Auditor Swan to pay them their salaries up to July 31, on the ground that they were illegally discharged, came up for argument before Judge Cherry yesterday. Messrs John M. Zane and D. E. Hempstead made the arguments for the petitioners, and City Attorney Hall and Assistant City Attorney Stewart for the defendant. Judge Cherry denied the petition, holding that the senure of office of the petitioners was only until the city election of November, 1887, or rather, until the officers then elected took their offices on Jap. 3, 1888. His honor also holds that on the appointment of the successors of the petitioners by the mayor and city council and their qualifying, the right of the petitioners and the other police officers to retain their offices ceased.

can Commanders to Protect Them.

Washington, Aug. 6.-Inasmuch as it has been stated that the archbishop of Manila has been directed by the vatican to place himself and his clergy under the protection of the American com. marders, it may be stated that such protection will be extended to the clergymen of all religious denominations, and to all non-combatants in Manila and the remainder of the Philip-nila and the remainder of the Philippirts.

It is said the insurgents have publicly singled out the Catholic clergy as the objects of their vengesnee, without doubt inspired by the power of the assistance afforded to the Snanish authorities by the priests and the friars in their efforts to repress the rebellion in its earlier stages. However, so long as the clergy refrain from taking upaims in the Snanish cause, the American commanders, naval and military, will afford them such protection as the rights of civilized warfare require.

A SWORN STATEMENT.

When my nephew was two weeks old he had running sores on his face, neck, breast, and hands, which continued to grow worse. They looked like raw beef. Sometimes blood would come and sometimes matter. He was awfully bad. Why, we had never heard or read of such a case. My sister had to tie his hands to the hammock to keep him from scratching himself, he itched so. He often rubbed his neck and face arainst his shoulders. The himself, he itched so. He often rubbed his neck and face against his shoulders. The doctor did little or no good. Said "it came from the blood," etc. She heard of CUTACURA (ointment), and I bought her a box, and finding it gave satisfaction she continued to use it. The bey is all well now and his face is clear.
